"Each officer named in this chapter shall first, out of the fees of his office, pay or be paid the amount allowed him under the provisions of this chapter, together with the salaries of his assistants and deputies, and the amount necessary to cover costs of premium on whatever surety bond may be required by law. If the fees of such office collected in any year be more than the amount needed to pay the amount allowed such officer and his assistants and deputies, same shall be deemed excess fees, and in counties in which the population is less than thirty-seven thousand five hundred (37,500) inhabitants, such officer shall retain all of such fees, in addition to the amounts specified in Articles 3883 and 3883-A, until same amounts to twelve hundred fifty ($1250) dollars, and of the remaining excess fees, such officers shall retain one-fourth of such remaining excess until such one-fourth amounts to seven hundred fifty ($750) dollars; provided, that in no case shall any officer in such counties receive as total compensation in excess of four thousand five hundred ($4500) dollars; and in counties in which the population is as many as thirty-seven thousand five hundred (37,500) inhabitants and is less than seventy-five thousand one (75,001) inhabitants, such officer shall retain all excess fees until the same amounts to one thousand two hundred fifty ($1250) dollars, and of the remaining excess fees such officer shall retain one-fourth of such remaining excess fees until such one-fourth, together with the maximum fees allowed by this chapter and said sum of one thousand two hundred fifty ($1250) dollars, shall amount to the sum of five thousand five hundred ($5500) dollars; and in counties in which the population exceeds seventy-five thousand (75,000) inhabitants, and is less than one hundred fifty thousand and one (150,001) inhabitants, such officer shall retain all excess fees until the same amounts to three thousand ($3000) dollars; and of the remaining excess fees, such officer shall retain one-fourth of such remaining excess fees until such one-fourth, together with the maximum fees allowed by this chapter and said sum of three thousand ($3000) dollars shall amount in the case of precinct officers to the sum of $3600 and in the case of district attorney, sheriff and county judge the sum of $6500 and for all other county and district officers receiving fees of office, $5500; and in other counties in which the population exceeds 150,000 inhabitants, according to the last Federal census the precinct officer shall retain all excess fees until the same, together with the maximum fees allowed by Articles 3883, 3883-A, and 3886, shall amount to the sum of $4000, the criminal district attorney and district attorney, sheriff and county judge shall retain all excess fees until the amount, together with the maximum fees allowed by Articles 3883, 3883-A and 3886 shall amount to the sum of $7500, and all other county and district officers receiving fees of office shall retain all excess fees until the same, together with the maximum fees allowed by Articles 3883, 3883-A and 3886 shall amount to the sum of $6000; and all fees collected by officers named in Articles 3883, 3883A and 3886, during any fiscal year in excess of maximum amount allowed by law, and of the amounts of excess fees allowed by this article for their services, and for services of their deputies, or their assistants as herein provided for, shall be paid into the county treasury of the county where the excess accrued, provided that in counties of less than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants and which constitute a separate judicial district, the chief deputy or the first assistant of the officer named in this chapter, shall receive a sum not to exceed a rate of eighteen hundred ($1800) dollars per annum, and the other deputies or assistants a sum of not to exceed a rate of fifteen hundred ($1500) dollar per annum, and the limitations as to the pay of deputies and assistants elsewhere provided in this chapter, shall not apply in such counties.

"The compensation, limitations, and maximums herein fixed in this chapter for officers shall include and apply to all fees and compensation whatever collected by said officers in their official capacity, whether accountable as fees of office under present law or not, and shall also include all compensation for certified or uncertified copies of any record or paper, and all fees or compensation for any certificates issued, any law, general or special, to the contrary notwithstanding, and particularly shall include all fees now allowed by law to officers pertaining to delinquent taxes and tax certificates, but this enumeration shall not be construed so as to exclude any other fees from the operation of this chapter. The compensation fixed by this chapter for sheriffs shall be exclusive of any reward received for the apprehension of criminal or fugitives from justice. The maximum fees for the compensation of district attorneys and criminal district attorneys shall be inclusive of the salary allowed such attorney by the Constitution. The maximum fees for the compensation of county judges and justices of the peace shall be exclusive of any compensation received for performing marriage ceremonies, which amount shall not be accountable for and not required to be reported as fees of office. (As amended, Act 1931, Forty-second Legislature, page 870, Chapter 368.)

"Sec. 2. This act shall become effective from and after January 1, 1933.

"Sec. 3. The fact that large and excessive sums of money are being allowed officers in certain counties containing as many as 75,000 inhabitants, according to the last Federal census, and causing extreme need for immediate tax relief, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and said rule is hereby suspended, and it is so enacted.

PAIRED.

Mr. Walker (present), who would vote "nay," with Mr. Cunningham (absent), who would vote "yea."

The Speaker then laid Senate bill No. 23 before the House on its third reading and final passage.

The bill was read third time and was passed.

REASON FOR VOTE.

I have voted against the creation of all new courts in the past, but this court seems to be needed in Smith and Upshur counties because of the great oil development in those counties and the great amount of litigation. For this reason I vote for this bill, hoping that the next Legislature will redistrict the State and greatly reduce the number of districts.

TERRELL of Cherokee.

cation of any unsold road bonds, and providing that such election shall be ordered and held in the same form and manner provided for in voting such road bonds; providing for the cancellation and destruction of such unsold road bonds retired by reason of such election, and the adjustment of existing tax levies and refund of any existing tax levies and refund of any taxes levied and collected in anticipation of the sale of such road bonds, etc."

The bill was read second time and was passed to engrossment.
